To My Mother with Love

I would like to talk about a wonderful person by whom I was raised and still now I am her baby, and I always will be. She is my mother. My favourite three words to say to her are "I love you". "It's great to be your son." We really have a lot of great times together through my early childhood till now. We have had good times and times, which is very true, but she has always been there for me a lot. Actually she is not just for me, for my dad and she has dedicated to her children, Arman, Aurup and of course me. My mother's favourite TV shows are Islam for mankind, Wheel of fortune. And her real favourite is to watch me in "Life Goes on". She loves to read her book that she really likes very much. My mother loved Point lookout, she originally lived in the city through her childhood and didn't like wild animals. As I am dedicating a tribute to my mom, Mother's Day really means a lot to me, because she's a wonderful woman. She's a woman who does a lot of wonders for all of us. 'Me and my brothers will always love you so much with our hearts.' I love my mom very much and I really mean it every single word. She is the most nice woman in the earth and I will always cherish her. She has decorated my life. 'It's great to have you as my mother.' As we grow up, we become our people and may come to forget that woman who nurtures and loves us. But remember that she will never forget you and never stop loving.

My poem for my mother

Her hands help me gently from the day I took my first breath
Her hands help to guide
me as I took my first step.
Her hands help me close when the tears would start fall

A true Story: Success in my first School

My name is Monim Ahmed. I read in BIAM Laboratory School and College. My first school was in Gobindogonj 'Little Flower English Version School'. My father is a service holder, for my father's job we have to transfer from one place to other. For admission in a well established school I had a good preparation. For admission when I went to the school the principal sir of that school took my admission test. I got full marks in the test. The teacher of that school said to my parents, "Your boy knows all the things, he'll not like to read in play group. You can admit him in nursery." My parents admitted me in nursery. I did my class there 1 week. Then the class teacher said to my mother, "Your boy is very little, it will be good for you if you admit him in play." I heard the conversation. Then I said to my mother, "I'm the little one but I'll do the big result." I was succeeded. I came first in class. So, a little one can do a big result if he can try hard.

A Homely Drawing Competition

Last Friday we arranged a drawing competition in our own home. In that competition Subrana Apu, Lubdhok Bhaia, Shudho Bhaia and I attended. The competition was very exciting for us. We had drawn a butterfly, an apple, a summer season and a rainy season. We applied different techniques of our own in our drawing. I won the 1st position, Subrana Apu was the 2nd, Lubdhok Bhaia was the 3rd and Shudho Bhaia was the 4th. We enjoyed much in our competition. It has encouraged us to make other competition. We should arrange this type of competition in our own home.

The People of Atel Land

Once upon a time there was a land of Atels. Many great personalities were born there. The lives of people of Atel land was not natural. Rather it was supernatural. The Atel land was governed by a empire called Iscam Atel bog. The emperor was very cruel and selfish. One day he visited Atel land. On his visit the whole city was decorated beautifully. But the emperor did not like it. So he ordered death sentence of the decorator on the occasion. The whole land was shocked at this. The people of Atel land became insecure, so they thought that someone needed to stand up. There arose some heroes of inappropriate personalities. The heroes hid in the dark and protected the people of Atel land. They had a motto "We work in the bathroom to serve the emperor" Soon the emperor heard of it, and became furious. The emperor had a pet panda who was the legendary dragon warrior. He successfully caught the dark heroes. And their true identity was revealed publicly. They were Kuddus, Chacha, Cheru, Katukutu, Atal. They were to be punished for their conspiracy. So the heroes worked out a plan. The king was allergic to Banana. The heroes had a special banana. It was called "Banana of the truth." They prepared their weapons. Android-chata (Umbrella) was a devastating weapon. They planned to attack the emperor's palace at night. Alas! they found the emperor dancing on the balcony. It seemed that the emperor was having a party, Kuddus did not know how to operate it. So accidentally he pressed the self destructive button and blew up entire Iscam Atel bog empire. Some of the people lost their father, mother, brother, husband, wife, children etc. They were evacuated to Iscampara, a beautiful little village. They were very angry at themselves to trust the stupid heroes.

Young Executive

A young executive with poor self esteem was promoted but he couldn't reconcile himself to his new office and position. There was a knock at his door. To show how important and busy he was, he picked up a phone from table and then asked the visitor to come in. As the man waited for the executive, the executive kept talking on the phone, nodding and saying. "No problem, I can handle that." After a few minutes he hung up and asked the visitor what he could do for him. The man replied. "Sir, I'm here to connect your phone."

Message : Why pretend? What are we trying to prove? What do we want to accomplish? Why do we need to lie? Why look for feelings of false importance? All of these types of behaviour come from insecurity and poor self esteem.

Dream Book

Tiny Elf has a fat book. He got it from his father, and his father, Tiny Elf's grandfather. It's a special book. It's very thick and has a gold covering wrapped around it. The pages are old and they are little yellow. The Elf calls it the Dream Book. Whenever Elf has a beautiful dream, he writes in that book. There are lots of dream written in this Dream book. He writes only sweet dreams but not bad dreams. Sweet dreams smell like fresh baked bread. Bad dreams are horrible. First Elf loves to take a warm bath and then goes to bed after dinner. After that he reads one or two dreams from the Dream Book and falls asleep. When the morning breaks, there's a new dream ready for the book and he writes the Dream in the Dream Book. What shall be the dream this time?

The Lion and its Hunt

Once upon a time there lived a lion in the jungle. It was very clever and he hungry all the time. Its hunger wasn't met by eating small animals. So, it always wanted to eat big animals or human being. He for a long time, was eating only the flesh of small animals. He didn't find or hunt any big animals or human being. He was getting weak and became very hungry. One day, a wood cutter came into the jungle and started cutting trees. At that time, the lion was roaming there and saw the wood cutter. The lion licked its lips seeing the wood cutter. It said that, "My hunt has come to me." The lion followed the wood cutter. The wood cutter then went into the deep part of the jungle for cutting more trees. This was the chance to hunt the wood cutter. But, the lion saw that a wolf is coming towards the cutter slowly and slowly. The lion decided to play a little game with the wood cutter and to save the hunts from eating another animal. The lion jumped into the ground and attacked the wolf with its deadly claw. The wolf got very much wounded and ran away from there. The wood cutter became very afraid. He said that "Please, don't kill me, please." The lion replied, "I won't kill you. I swear." "You will surely not coming to kill me?" the wood cutter said.

"No, I will not. Will you be my friend," asked the lion. "Okay", replied the wood cutter. The lion said, "I saved your life. Will you please give me some meat. I am very hungry." "Okay, I will give you today in the evening," said the wood cutter and left the place.

The lion started laughing falling onto the ground. The lion thought that the wood cutter was a fool and it would eat him in the evening with extra meats. The lion thought that the wood cutter was human and he was a big fool human being. It waited early in the evening in the deep part of the forest. The lion could not wait anymore for its hunt. The wood cutter came but with many people. they were carrying sticks with fire and axes, knives, wooden sticks and very sharp materials. The lion saw that and started running away. Before that, the people surrounded it and started hitting it with sharp materials. The lion tried to attack for its self defence, but got wounded and died a painful death. The wood cutter said, "Animals should think like animals, not like humans." The lion got a great lesson of greed for food and cleverness.

A PITCHER OF GOLD COINS

Once upon a time there was an old man who lived with his two sons. These two sons were like the best friends. They always did everything together. With their father they lived happily but they were very poor. One day their father found a pitcher which was full of 'gold coins.' Then he came back with his gold coin to his home. His two sons also came back at home and saw him with the pitcher of gold coins. The two sons came near their father and said, "Where did you get it?" Their father replied "I got it in the field." Then they were very happy to see it and they took the gold coins and hid it into the soil near a banyan tree. A man was crossing near the banyan tree and saw them to hide the pitcher of gold coins. Then the two sons and their father went to their house happily. Then the man who saw them to hide the pitcher of gold coins, came to the banyan tree and found the pitcher into the soil. Then he took went the way of her house with the gold coins. After crossing the mid way of his house, a gang attacked him and took the pitcher of gold coins. Then he followed the gang for 2 hours in the way of jungle. The gang went to the cave where they lived. The gangstar came out from the cave and became happy to see the pitcher of gold coin and announced party. After finishing party, they went to sleep and the man went into the cave very slowly and stole the pitcher of gold coins. Then he ran fast from the cave- and the gangstar saw him to run, he also ran behind him. After cossing the forest the gangstar missed to catch the man. Then the gangstar came back to the cave. The man also came to the village and he became thirsty. Then he went to the house where the old man and his two sons lived. The man knocked the door and the old man opened the door. The man came into house and said "Please give me some water". Then the oldman said, "Sure." The oldman gave him some water and he drank the water very fast. The two sons saw the pitcher of gold coins and said "It is our pitcher, where have you got it." Then the man said all the story and gave them the pitcher. Then he wanted to go but the old man and their sons did not let him go. Then they lived happily.

TO MAKE MAN FROM COW

Once an old lady lived in a village. She had two cows. One was white and so quiet. Another was red and it was so ill tempered. In that village there was a teacher who had name and fame. Because he could make good students from bad students So everyone said, "He can make man from cow". Hearing this the old lady took her two cows to the teacher. The old lady said to the teacher, "I am very old I don't know how many days I'll alive. I heard that you can make man from cow. Take my two cows and make them men." The teacher hit upon a plan. He said, "You'll not come to your cows every day. You'll come after 3 months. The old lady said, "Why can't I come to the cows?"

Then the teacher said, "If you come every day the cow'll not learn their lesson attentively." "Ok, I'll not come to the cows." The teacher sold the cows after two days. The old lady came after 3 months to the teacher and said, "Where are my cows, I don't see them for many days." The teacher said 'I remember.' Then after many thinking the teacher said, "Your two cows are very famous." Your white cow has become the DC of the city and your red cow has become the police officer of the city police station.'

The old lady became very happy. First he went to meet the DC of the city as her white cow. The security didn't allow to enter the house of DC. Then the DC came and heard all the incident from the security. He was very polite and generous. He heard all the story from the old lady and gave her food to eat and two thousand money. She became very happy and came back.

Then she went to the police station and the police officer of that station was very ill tempered The old lady said, "I'm your old mother." The officer said, "What are you saying, do you have any work? I don't know you" The old lady returned to the village and then she met with the teacher and said him "I went to city and met with my cows. The white cow is very good and the red cow is ill tempered."

"Thank you. You are very good, you have made men' my cows." The old lady said to the teacher. Then the old lady lived in peace.

Alien on the Moon

Scientists have found out that there is some thing living outside the earth. They are called Aliens. Scientists tell that there are Aliens in the 'moon' and 'mars.' And that is confirm. Because in Russia two times 'UFO' came at night. And it was captured by a 'CC' camera. It is known that Aliens have made radio, telescope and so many things. And they take power from the sun. They are much more powerful than man. And scientists tell that all the diseases, come from the Aliens. Few years ago, China sent a spaceship to know about the moon. But it was not succesful because Aliens sent a 'Missile' which destroyed the spaceship. And some days ago scientists saw an Alien walking in the moon. But they did not see the face. And there are many documents about the Aliens which 'NASA' knows. And they also can talk with Aliens. Few years ago, Aliens took some people from earth to know about us. And they can change like us. They can take our hormon, body, hair and can also talk like us. In hollywood movies, many movies characters are Aliens. But the questions is-how do they know about Alien? Did they see Alien? Yes, it can be possible because Alien took some people from earth. But how can other people know? Because the man who went to the Aliens world he/she went to the nurologist. And nurologist knew the face of Alien. But they are not sure! And-scientists think that the whole universe has been created by Aliens. But is it true or false?

May be it is true. Because scientists have seen and talked with Aliens. And scientists tell that Aliens want this whole world. And NASA has many other documents. But they do not want to tell this. Scientists tell that Aliens look like this

And the First 'UFO' came in 2:30 AM, May 13, 2009. Two days later 5:27 AM, 15, 2009. Again, two days later 3:6 AM, 17, 2009 and it is captured to a 'CC' camera. And a man wrote a book in 1996 named 'Somebody else in Moon'. Because he went to moon. And he saw.

Wise Bear

In the country side, there lived two friends. One of them was a carpenter and the other a tailor. They had a very peculiar habit of keeping their work pending for the next day.

But, they were not lazy. They simply thought that every thing will be fine if they left it for tomorrow. One day the tailor said, "Let's go for a holiday." So, the two friends closed their shops and went out. They had not gone very far when they met an old lady. The lady kept bees. She said to the tailor, "Good day my son!" And added, "Would you make a new dress for me if I give you ten pots of honey?" The tailor said, "I will start working the moment I return. If you dont mind, please give me the honey in advance."

The old woman gave the honey to the tailor. They went away. When they passed through a small village, they found the people looking very worried and frightened. The villagers told them, "Many of our men are killed by the bear who lived nearby forest." The tailor said, "It won't worry us." At this time the carpenter said, "You will get the bear by tomorrow. Kindly pay us ten pieces of gold right away. They agreed and gave the gold coins to the carpenter. The two friends went to the forest. At once, they heard a terrible uproar behind the trees and then a big bear came in front of them. The tailor climded on a tree nearby, but the carpenter was caught by the bear on the ground. The tailor asked, "Did the bear said anything in your Ear?" The carpenter replied, "Yes, He did", Than he said, "First catch the bear then sell the skin" The tailor replied, "I should also make the dress before accepting the honey in payment for it.

A Genius

Mahbub is a university student . He is an intelligent student but he is failure in life and load in his family, because he is because blind. He can't see anything from his birth. His parents avoided him from introducing to his relatives. But he didn't take it in mind and continued his hard working in education with the faith in Allah's blessing. This faith and hard working resulted him successful in his life to fulfil his dreams. He got G.P.A 5 in public exams like SSC and HSC. He was happy for this but something made him unhappy and that is- his parent introduced only his two younger brothers but not him. Even on Eid day they sent him to his grandfather's house so that they didn't get insulted by introducing him, to others. But Mahbub's hard working and faith in Allah proved that he is not a load for everyone. He got 1st division in both 1st and 2nd year. His parents realised their fault and helped to go more forward. They don't think him as a load now and is trying as to their ability to make Mahbub educated like others. In our society people like Mahbub should be helped to be educated like normal people to change the world.

Three Friends

We have our friends. They might be our best friends. This is a story of three friends. One of their friends was short in size named Tomkin. Another friend was intelligent named Tanvir. They were living in a village. Once the three friends were feeding Tomkin's cow. At the time, suddenly Tanvir fell an empty bucket from his hand and it was fallen on the feet of Tomkin. Then Tomkin got hurt. Suddenly Tanvir laughed. And it becomes misunderstanding among them. Then each Tomkin's cow had ran away, and he tried to catch the cow but he was failed. But if they were together at that time; it wouldn't happend. Tanvir was said to collect the correct wood. But there was lot's of woods and Tanvir couldn't carry those woods. Tanjiv was said to fetch three bukets of water from the well. But to fetch water from the well Tanjiv needed some help. But there were no one to help him at that time. At a time they were together. They discussed themselves. They said that a friend should always help a friend in need. And there are some works which we cannot do by ourselves. That's why we should always be together.
